HAIL TO DEAR ST. FRANCIS

*Waft our colors to the heavens
Crimson and gold as the sky
Alma Mater, lead us onward
Guide us to God on high*

*When these happy days are over Mem'ries will still linger on
Of the Faith and truth you taught us
We'll sing again our song*

Ho
mac

Your giving me your yearbook
for me to sign,
I'm doing just that — cause I'm your friend and your mine!

CHORUS:

Hail to dear St. Francis
School of our girlhood hopes and joys
Thru the fields of time be our
Guiding light and our inspiration
Praise to Alma Mater
Loyal to her God and country
We'll cherish you, we'll love you, too
We'll glory in your name
St. Francis Xavier, Hail to you!

Dear Maureen,
lots of love
and luck to you in
St. Francis.
Mary

Dear Maureen,
I'm gonna miss
you when I'm away.
Hope we'll still be the best of friends.
Miss me. Love n' luck

Joanne. Girl.

Best of luck
Love Tommy.

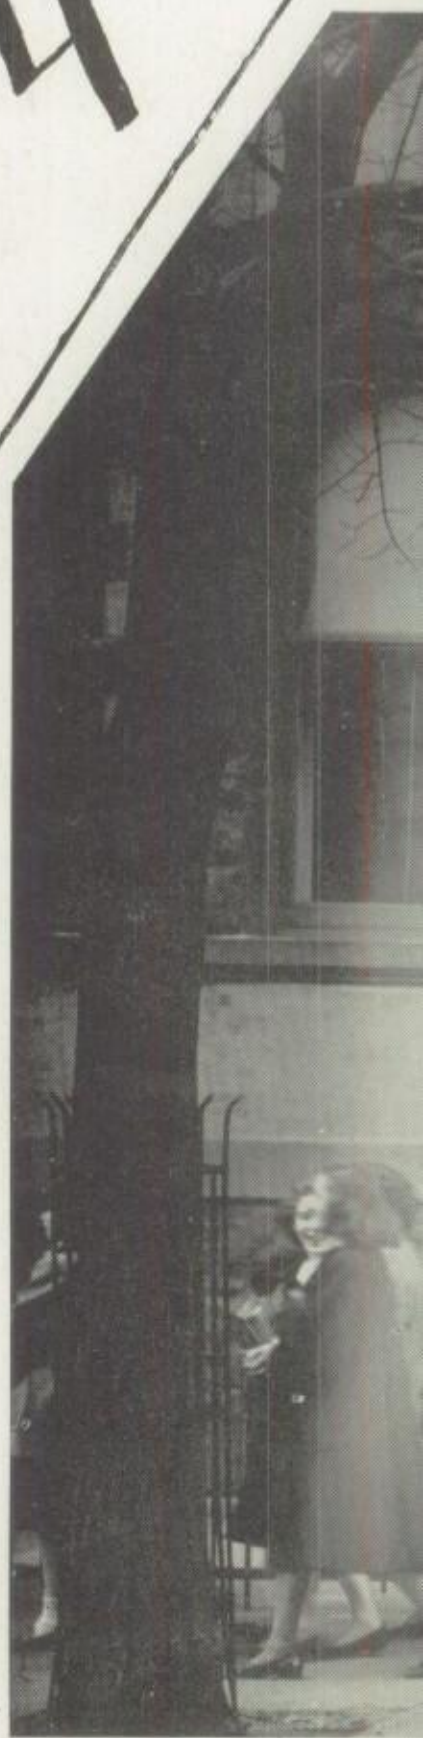

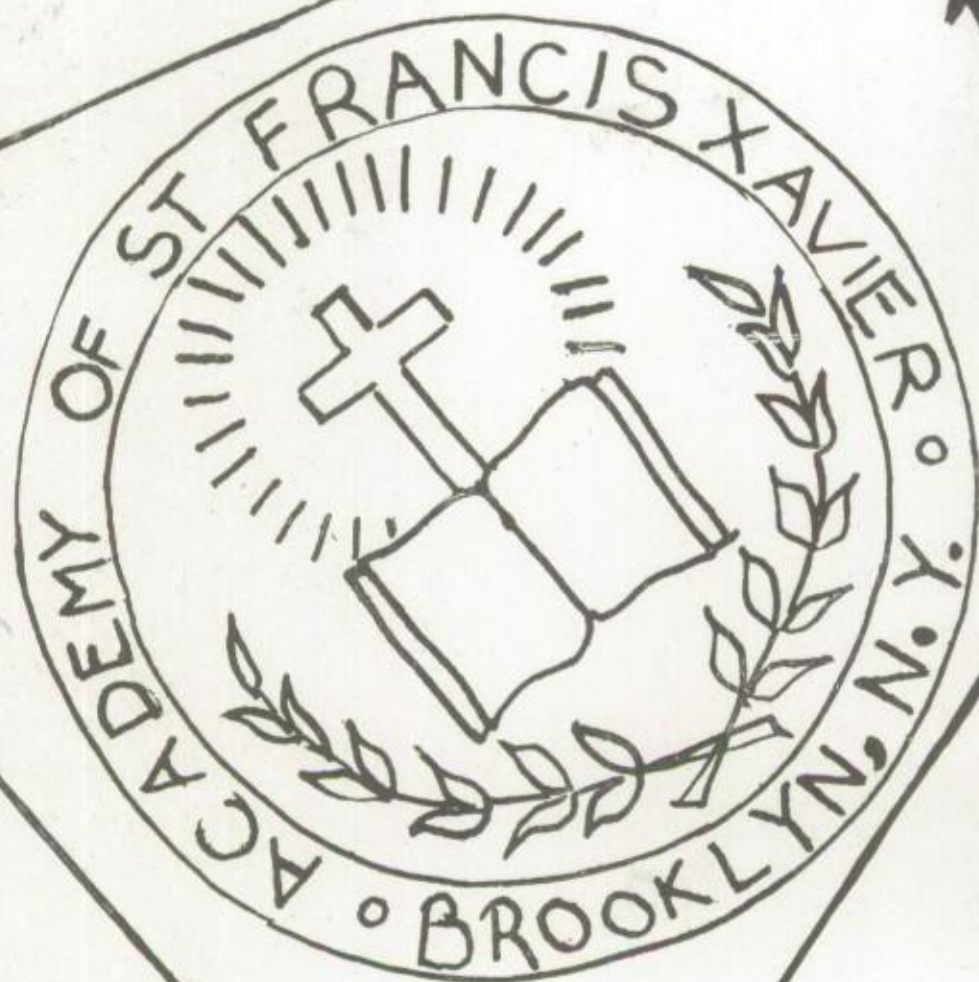

Foreword

In the shadow of the downtown business district, on a rather quiet residential street, we have spent four full, completely happy years. Since time will cloud the record of these days, we have endeavored by this, our Yearbook, to tie together securely by means of pen and paper, the most cherished of our memories, but a part of us—our girlhood dreams and hopes—will remain within the cherished walls of the red brick building on Carroll Street, numbered 697.

SAINT FRANCIS

XAVIER ACADEMY

in Brooklyn, New York

Dedication

Every Catholic student has devotion to our Heavenly Mother because her Son was pleased, while manifesting His great love for us in the Incarnation, to tie it up with the holiest of human relationship there is, that of child and mother. Mary, His Mother, thereby became our mother—mother of all mankind.

It is you—Mother of Mankind—we wish to honor in this issue of "The Gateway."

—ROSEMARIE ABBRUZZESE

ALMA MATER

Theme

*"The heart of Mary, moved by earnest prayer,
Will scatter grace and sweetness everywhere."*

In looking back over our four joyful years at Saint Francis, we recall running through the gate many times, as the bell was ringing, but always we would stop, no matter how late we were, to put our hand in Mary's, as we passed her statue in the yard.

O, Mary, how patiently you have stood and waited for our handclasp on cold winter days or under blistering summer skies! Hand in hand with us you have come through our high school days! How kindly you have guided us through trials and disappointments to joys and victories.

You see, dear Mother, the calamities, the tribulations that surround us. As you are our Mother, we count on you as an advocate for us, on our journey through the years ahead. Your dominion reaches to the heavens, and you are omnipotent through grace.

Help us, your children; give peace to human society and victory to the cause of religion.

In the words of His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman:

"Holy Mary, Mother of God, Gate of Heaven, Mother of Mankind, pray for us; deign to enfold us within thy mantle; be for us a shield from sin and from the agony of sorrow which sin has wrought upon the world; grant unto us, O beloved Protectress, Mary, Mother of Mankind, the blessing and joy of peace on earth and everlasting peace in thy Son, our Divine Redeemer, the Prince of Peace!"

(300 days' indulgence)

Our Mother

*Mother, unto thee we pray:
We who graduate today
Are sisters of the dusky natives,
The pagan Eskimos,
The cultured European peasants,
And many, many others.
We are brethren of thy Son
And so it follows
Thou must be our Mother.
Behold us, Mary,
We are thine.
And thou, Mary, belong to us
For thy Son once said,
"Behold thy Mother."
And we have seen,
At Lourdes,
At Fatima,
In the Philippines,
In Germany,
How much thou art the Mother of us all.
Thou hast given us hope
In a darkened world,
A goal
Above all pagan concepts,
A mission
Among our brethren.
We Catholic graduates
Accept these things today
From thee, O Mary,
Our Mother.*

—MARIE CELINE MIRANDA

OUR LADY, MOTHER OF MANKIND

"O Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today."

"Who Wouldn't Love You"

VICTORY TO THE CAUSE OF RELIGION

Is it not sad how indifferent the Catholics of today are to the warnings of God and His Blessed Mother? The visits Mary, our Mother has made to the little children of Fatima, the chosen Carmelite, the humble priest have all been pleas for prayer and good works. The imprisonment of a Prince of the Church, Cardinal Mindszenty, is a direct blow at religion, yet permitted by God to awaken a sleeping Catholic world . . . but it still sleeps. Should it not have shamed us to hear the words of our Mother "My Son is grieved" . . . but we still remain cold toward Him.

Father Keller, a zealous Maryknoll priest claims: "We can change the world" . . . We, the graduates of a Catholic school . . . by bringing Christ's sweet message and the ideas that made a once-pagan world, Christian. Our country seems destined to lead the world for the future . . . but it depends in good measure on us the people to see that it leads all toward Christ and His Mother.

It is a consoling thought that we can help Christianize this age and let it leave its mark on years to come. A small, unnoticed deed, a silent prayer offered to Him, through our love for Him, may save a soul or divert a crisis.

Catholics may take courage at the thought that religion will be victorious. Christ told us this Himself when He said: "I am with you all days . . ." and ". . . the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Though persecutions spread we must realize that that is what helped to strengthen the Church in the past. We can pray that the glorious victory of religion will come soon and that all mankind will find peace in Christ, Son of Mary, Mother of Mankind.

JANUARY 1949 — CLASS HISTORY

Four years ago, on a blustery February day, we first walked down the campus path and paused before the smiling face of Our Lady of Mankind. Now, as we pass her encompassing arms for the last time, we wish to offer thanks for her protection and guidance which has enabled us to spend four years filled with happy memories.

As "freshies," our first vivid recollection was the initiation ceremonies when the Seniors entered our classroom and, pompously drawing the shades and bolting the door, proceeded to carry out all the ancient and beloved traditions. Then after a week of clattering pails and shovels and bowing to the dignified Seniors, we were formally adopted into Saint Francis. Those early months were hard ones for strange, totally unfamiliar toys as Latin, Algebra, and Biology were placed in our unaccustomed hands. However, with the help and guidance of our Mother we struggled through and left the undignified role of "freshie" for the preferred title of "Sophomores!" We were given new toys. First, we met an exciting doll called "Caesar" and accompanied him through his Gallic tales. Geometry was a game in which the player had to prove $A=B$. At first we couldn't understand the rules but after a little practice we all became star players. As the blocks fell into place they spelled French words and idioms until finally we could make whole sentences and say that we could "parlez francais." Aside from these class activities, those athletically inclined turned eyes of wonder toward basket-ball and bowling.

After these two years of zealous work, we found ourselves, thanks to the guidance and protection of our Lady, quite eager and ready to accept the new upperclass and dignity of Juniors. However, to our dismay, besides the added dignity we also realized that new and more complicated toys, in the forms of Cicero and Chemistry, were placed in our awkward fingers. It was during this exciting and eventful year that our varsity stars left for a few hours the protecting arms of our beloved Alma Mater to bring back honor and fame which they placed at the feet of our generous Mother. It was also in this year that a few hopeful poets, authors and artists were added to the Courier staff. But we all agreed that the climax to this wonderful, carefree term came the day when we were measured for our rings and given a hint of the joys that were to come with our promotion.

As Seniors we didn't ignore our toys entirely but our attention was focused on other events. Weeks ahead we began to count the days to Saint Patrick's Day for that was the memorable day we received our rings. Then we tried our hands at play acting and presented "The Ostrich Club" and "The Nativity" play in rapid succession. At the same time there was a great deal of talk and planning for the gala affair at the Park Central Hotel—the Senior Prom. The last step we took as Seniors was at the Luncheon when we presented the 4A's with the key to the 4B class.

Alas, commencement night arrived and amid the swishing of gowns and happy laughter there were tears of sadness for we were bidding "adieu" to our "Alma Mater." We shall use those bits of advice you have given us and each time we look down at our "garnet and gold" we shall recall those fond memories and the four happy years we spent under your guidance and protection.

STARRING: CLASS OF JUNE, 1949

Directed by: SISTERS OF SAINT JOSEPH

Produced by: "OUR LADY OF MANKIND"

Act I

The curtain rises. The stage is set for Act One. The sun is shining upon eighty new Xavierites starting their first of four wonderful years. The performance is a difficult but happy one. The Freshmen played their parts like real troupers. Ably supported by the kind Sisters we dived into our studies. Latin bewildered us; Biology entranced us; Algebra completely confused us.

There were many happy scenes in this our first starring role. Our hazing gave us a great thrill. Christmas was glorious and we envied the Senior choir girls singing to the patients in the hospital. Would we ever reach the senior year?

Before we realized it summer had approached and we closed our books as the curtain descended on our first steps to stardom.

Act II

Sophomores—Now, the curtain rises on the second act to reveal the same group, slightly older, trudging across the hills of Rome trying in vain to follow Caesar. In a spirit of sheer desperation, with Caesar nowhere to be found, we turned to Euclid for solace. Needless to say, Geometry just didn't seem to be the proper antidote for a Gallic War. French also raised its lofty head for the first time only to lower it again when les jeunes filles started to decapitate it. But from all of these battles the Sophomores emerged victorious and made their graceful flight like newly-born butterflies into the Junior year.

Act III

After two months the curtain rose again to find the Freshmen of '45 the Juniors of '47. At last we were upper classmen. This year we had intricate and varied parts to play. We were: Senators, listening to Cicero's magnificent speeches; Chemists struggling to work out formulae; Frenchmen speaking the oddest French ever heard; and, lest I forget, we were mathematicians, following in the footsteps of Euclid. It was a dream of every girl to play the loving "Phoebe" or the pathetic "Elaine."

As our Junior year rolled to a close we had a feeling of being well prepared for our last and most memorable part—Seniors!

Act IV

The Grand Finale was as is expected the most spectacular of all acts. Even the pangs of intermediate algebra and the constant dueling with physics did not mar the picture. It had many, never-to-be-forgotten scenes. Our Senior rings were presented to us at the Hallowe'en Party and the play which was given by the preceding class still touches the funny-bone of our memory. And then in the midst of all our memories the glorious thoughts of our Senior Prom loom up glistening and sterling. The Senior Luncheon and the Saint Patrick's Day Party are all interwoven into this beauteous pattern which was our Senior year. Finally, the long-awaited day arrives and we find ourselves standing on the stage of the Academy, roses in hand, trying desperately not to trip over our filmy white dress. Our commencement has arrived to find us a little unwilling to leave our Alma Mater by whom we have been sheltered for four short years.

BOWLING CLUB

Every Monday and Tuesday afternoon the Plaza Bowling Alley is a scene of great activity. These are the days when the Xavierite teams try their skill at the game of ten-pins. High scores are not the immediate goal but to learn the proper bowling technique is the ambition of one and all. Under the able direction of Mr. Thompson the girls are becoming skillful. Besides the sound of the falling pins there resounds, throughout the alley, the happy laughter and gay chatter of the Xavierite bowlers.

PROPAGATION

Love of God shows itself more by works than words—the latter costs us but mere lip-service; to do the first means devotion. Of course we can express our regret for transgressions but it is better, more perfect to go on to acts of satisfaction. "Charity covereth a multitude of sins." The students throughout the school have been most generous in remembering the needy in the south of our own country as well as the poor Indians in the west; the Filipinos, Puerto Ricans and Europeans in need.

OUR VARSITY

While the records do not read "Victory" for every game played this season, they can not report all as losses either. But since "the game's the thing that counts," the overall view is not too discouraging. Pens can't record the good times; banks can't count the value and pages couldn't describe the honest fun the game has brought to all.

XAVIER COURIER

The chatter of excited reporters, the mystic expressions of the poets, the wandering eyes of the story writers and the swollen fingers of the typists is the usual picture one finds at any press meeting. The Courier Press being a usual one presents all this—yes, and lots more, too.

THE LEO HONOR SOCIETY

These select Xavierites belong to the Leo Honor Society, a diocesan society with a panel in each high school. To be a member in this society the student is expected to maintain a high scholastic standard and to be active in extra-curricular activities. She also should be a practical Catholic, being a member in a parish society. She must be helpful, conscientious and willing to assist others. The student who is a member of the Leo Honor Society is respected throughout the school, and wears the gold and white pin of the society as her mark of achievement.

GARNET AND GOLD

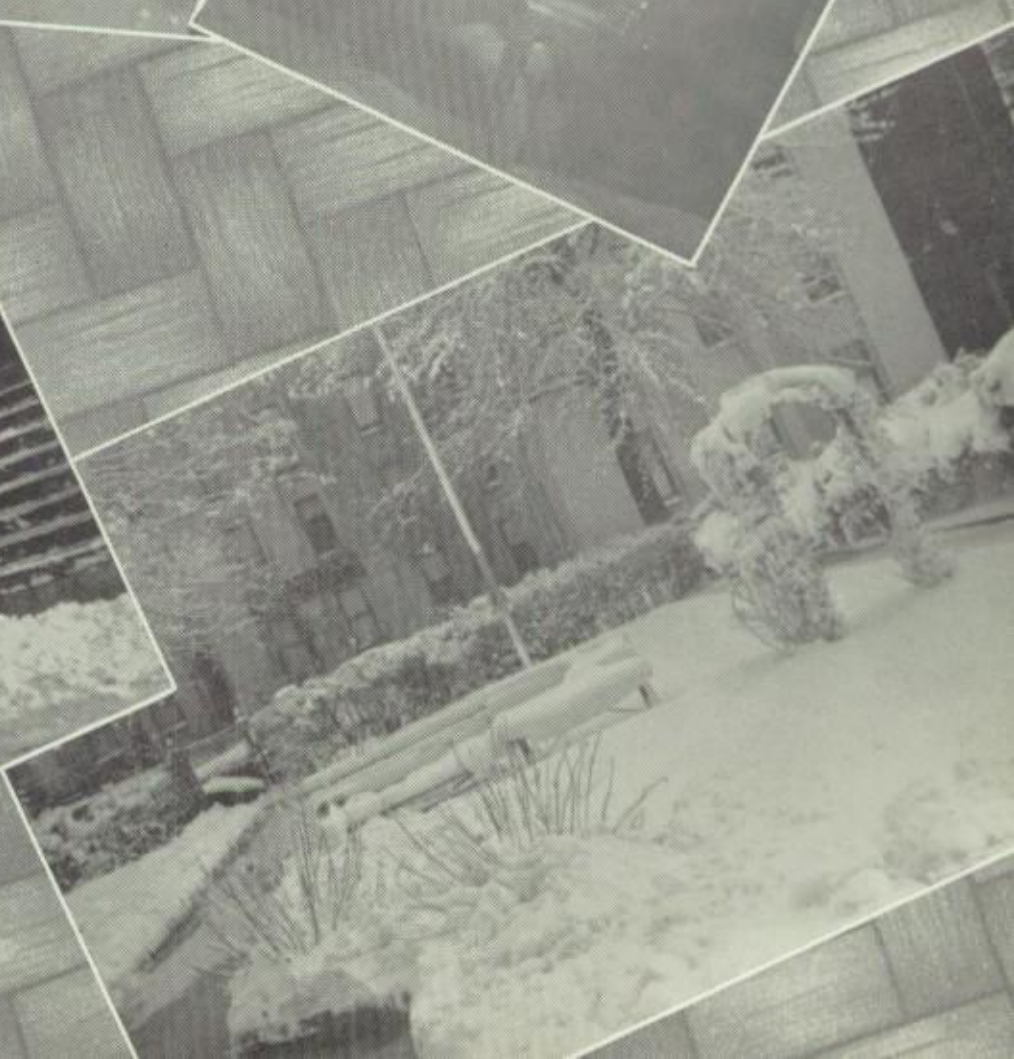

*As I look up, on the wall, I behold,
Our Senior banner of garnet and gold.
I think of all it has meant to me—
Of the day we received that cardboard key.*

*The games are over, the tests are all past
But the spirit I learned will always last.
Each new term has been a brand new inning,
We're now at the end—tho' 'tis said, life's but beginning.*

Classes

THE JUNIOR CLASSES—Having spent the major part of three years here at the Academy, the Junior Classes are preparing to step into the places of their illustrious predecessors, the Seniors. The Presidents, Carmen Ortega, Marie Ehnhuus and Marie Mercorelli have ably led their teams through the last year of apprenticeship into stardom.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASSES—It seems that these Xavierites not only prove themselves the most colorful and most alive in their antics and classroom performances but have actually given force where it has counted, for many of the Glee Club members have been drawn from their numbers. They make promise of being an outstanding group. The Presidents are: Frances Biesty, Ann McGoldrick, Audrey Donahue, Jane Reilly.

THE FRESHMAN CLASSES—The Annex has harbored our future students for the past year. Reports show that they are consistently good all-around students. They have taken an active interest in all the activities open to the "frosh." The Presidents report 100% cooperation.

SENIOR A CLASS

PEACE TO HUMAN SOCIETY . . .

The inevitable tension between the love of selfish pleasures and the desire for spiritual peace has always produced much perplexity in the soul of man. The modern materialistic age seems of the opinion that the only way to attain any condition of happiness is to ignore the spiritual, and bend over backwards in an effort to satisfy the insatiable appetites of the body. This philosophy of life does not bring about any real happiness but only a transient joy and then succeeds in leaving anxieties and conflicts which tear at men's minds and eventually at their bodies. Because of this moral laxity, our Lady has frequently appeared in an effort to deter men from their headlong rush to ruin. On June 13, 1917 she appeared to three little Portuguese children while the rest of the world was busy at war. She pleaded with these humble children at Fatima to do penance for the sins of the world and it was to them, that the Mother of God made startling promises and uttered prophecies of things to come. Our Lady of Fatima declared that unless men returned to God and gave up their sinful lives another World War would follow, worse than the first. So it is very evident that there is really only one road to peace and contentment—it is the same one that leads to God.

But this road is not always an easy one; sometimes it's lonely, sometimes it's sad, sometimes long and weary but, whatever the difficulties, when we reach our goal all our sacrifices and trials suddenly seem worthwhile for it is then that Christ will smilingly lean from His throne and say benignly:

*All which I took from thee
I did but take
Not for thy harms
But just that thou mightest
seek it in My arms;
All which thy child's mistake
Fancies as lost, I have stored for thee at home;
Rise, clasp My hand and Come!*
